

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT March 19, 2017

Lent is about repenting. "We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God", (2 Cor. 5:20). There are two parts to repentance; first turn away from sin. Secondly, turn to God. The best way to start is to go to confession. Sin builds up a barrier between us and God. Going to confession allows for a more intimate relationship with God. Take time to experience God's grace and mercy in reconciliation, especially this Lenten season.

The Rosary will be prayed before all weekday Masses during Lent.
