PALM SUNDAY April 14, 2019

Holy Week begins today with Palm Sunday. We bless palm branches to remember Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. People put palm branches on the road in front of Jesus to acknowledge he was their King. Enter into this week with humility before God and savour every moment at the Masses. Think about what you are going to do to put the "Holy" in this "Week". This whole week is dedicated to help us be holy. Please take advantage of the special events during Holy Week.

Archdiocesan Celebration of the Chrism Mass and Thanksgiving for Archbishop's O'Brien's Ministry in the Archdiocese - You are cordially invited to join Archbishop O'Brien and the clergy of the Archdiocese to celebrate the Chrism Mass at St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston, on Tuesday, April 16, 2019, at 7:30 p.m. Gathering as the visible Body of Christ, we express our communion with the Archbishop. On this special occasion, we will bid farewell to Archbishop Brendan O'Brien, who will be retiring after serving for 12 years as the Archbishop of Kingston. After the Mass, join us for a Reception in his honour at École Cathédrale. There you will have an opportunity to say farewell and to express your gratitude for his dedicated service to the Archdiocese of Kingston. As in previous years at the Chrism Mass, the priests and deacons will renew their ordination promises, and the oils used for the Sacramental life of the Church will be blessed and distributed to each Parish and Institution.

Our Parish Confessions are Monday, April 15th at 7pm. We will have a number of priests here so this is your opportunity to go to Confession before Easter.

Sunday, April 28th is Divine Mercy Sunday. We will have a Holy Hour here at St. Joseph Church, beginning at 2:15pm. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for a time of prayer and adoration. Fr. Charles will lead the congregation in singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3pm. As well, there will be an opportunity for confession during the Holy Hour. Please consider offering this time of prayer to our Lord.

Thanks to everyone who participated in the New Life Course held here at St. Joseph's last weekend. Also a big thank you to everyone who volunteered & helped make it such a success.

NEEDED: PASTORAL CARE VOLUNTEERS

AT KINGSTON GENERAL HOSPITAL

Friar David Collins, OFM Conv., is the Roman Catholic Chaplain at Kingston General Hospital. We know how important it is to have a priest or pastoral care volunteer to visit our sick loved ones and to take the Blessed Sacrament to them while they are in hospital.

Friar David is assisted by volunteers from different parishes that arrive before 9:00 a.m. and begin with a short prayer service and then visit the Catholic patients, offering them Holy Communion or just pray with them, if that is what the patient desires.

Friar David is in need of more volunteers to serve in this wonderful ministry.

Training is provided by Friar David, along with the training that all volunteers undergo who volunteer at the hospital.

If you are interested in volunteering one morning a week, Monday thru Friday, please contact Friar David at 613-546-6900
