

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
February 16, 2020

How serious are we in our commitment to Jesus? Aided by God's grace, we must strive to keep His commandments. Grace is given to enable one to advance toward the goal of absolute obedience. It is not easy to be entirely committed to all God's Commandments. True and loyal service of God's teachings can begin in the heart. Keeping His Ten Commandments is a way of being grateful to God who has given us all we have and who has promised us infinitely greater gifts for our future.

Communal Drinking From The Cup: Just a reminder regarding my announcement last weekend, communal drinking from the cup is discontinued. Thus, we need only three ministers to come forward to assist with Holy Communion. Thank you. Father Charles
