CONFÉRENCE DES ÉVÊQUES CATHOLIQUES DU CANADA
CANADIAN CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

Statement from the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops following the recent discovery
at the former Kamloops Indian Residential School on the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc First Nation

On behalf of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB), I express our deepest sorrow for the heartrending loss of the children at the former Kamloops Indian Residential School on the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc First Nation.

The news of the recent discovery is shocking. It rekindles trauma in numerous communities across this land. Honouring the dignity of the lost little ones demands that the truth be brought to light.

This tragedy profoundly impacts Indigenous communities, with whom many people across this land and throughout the world now stand in solidarity.

As we see ever more clearly the pain and suffering of the past, the Bishops of Canada pledge to continue walking side by side with Indigenous Peoples in the present, seeking greater healing and reconciliation for the future.

We lift up prayers to the Lord for the children who have lost their lives and pledge our close accompaniment of Indigenous families and communities.

May our Creator God bless all of us with consolation and hope.

+ Richard Gagnon
Archbishop of Winnipeg and President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops

31 May 2021

As we continue to celebrate the Year of St. Joseph, we are reminded of the words of Pope Francis in his Apostolic Letter Patris Corde, where he writes: Saint Joseph's work reminds us that God himself, in becoming man, did not disdain work. The loss of employment that affects so many of our brothers and sisters, and has increased as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, should serve as a summons to review our priorities. Let us implore Saint Joseph the Worker to help us find ways to express our firm conviction that no young person, no person at all, no family should be without work!

St. Joseph, patron saint of workers, pray for us!

St. Joseph, patron saint of Canada, pray for us!

Message from Archbishop Michael Mulhall, Archbishop of Kingston ~ My dear Faithful of the Archdiocese: Today, we begin the month of June, which is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I am inviting you to join with me in dedicating ourselves in private prayer, and as a community, to this precious mystery. The continued restrictions resulting from the pandemic will make our communal celebrations difficult. However, it is my prayer that, before the end of the month, we will be in a better position to enjoy much greater freedom to gather. His Eminence Cardinal Thomas Collins, the Archbishop of Toronto, has prepared a beautiful pastoral letter on the Sacred Heart. I ask that each of you take the time to read his gift to each of us and reflect on the mystery of God's self-revelation to humanity. May this reflection during the month of June allow us - and our Catholic groups and institutions - to move closer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Be assured of my continued prayers for each of you during these difficult times. Follow this link to read Cardinal Collin's Pastoral Letter, Heart Speaks to Heart:
