Parishioners of St. Joseph Church have previously volunteered to help serve at our Hospitality Sundays and Funeral Luncheons. These ministries have been on hold for 2 years due to Covid-19 restrictions. We have not been able to use our parish hall for any type of receptions or parish events. In an attempt to revive some of our Ministries, we are seeking parishioners who would consider volunteering some time to either coordinate these events or serve on a team of helpers. We ask those who have previously been part of our serving teams in the past to let us know if you are willing to continue your support. This is an excellent opportunity for those new to the parish to get involved and meet others. If you would like to volunteer your time to serve, set up for events or clean up afterwards, please call the parish office.
